

This stylish and well presented home is centrally located within this landmark development, originally designed by architect WL Moffat, and constructed in 1869. Lanesborough Court, granted Grade II listing, was sympathetically converted by Yuill Homes during the turn of the last millennium. St Nicholas Hospital Conservation Area offers a tranquil and gated setting in the middle of the City and gives excellent access to everything Gosforth has to offer.

The accommodation briefly comprises: entrance hall with stairs to first floor; downstairs WC; sitting room with feature stove; kitchen diner with dual aspect windows, a range of fitted units, work surfaces, integrated appliances, spot lighting and Karndene flooring; study. The first floor landing with storage cupboard gives access to; two double bedrooms, both with en-suite shower rooms and bedroom one with fitted wardrobe storage cupboards. Externally, the property benefits from two allocated parking spaces and shares well manicured communal gardens. Being offered with a share of the freehold and well presented throughout, and with gas 'Combi' central heating, this fantastic home simply demands an early inspection.
