This stunning, chain-free four-bedroom period terrace has been immaculately refurbished throughout, perfectly blending historic charm with contemporary living.

Upon entering, beautiful Herringbone flooring flows seamlessly into an expansive open-plan reception, dining, and kitchen area. Designed to prioritise natural light and social space, the dining area provides convenient access to a downstairs WC and storage. The impressive rear kitchen extension features underfloor heating and is an entertainer's dream, complete with a central island, Quooker tap, and high-spec oven. Two large skylights flood the space with light, while bifold doors open onto an east-facing garden with a patio, mature flower beds, and a central lawn.

The first floor houses three generously sized bedrooms, the front-facing room enjoying a lovely dual-window aspect. The standout, Japandi-inspired family bathroom is finished with exquisite tiling and premium brushed bronze fixtures, featuring both a bath and shower. The second floor offers a superb loft conversion, providing a private principal suite with an en-suite and useful eaves storage.

Set in a wonderfully friendly community, you are a short walk from the expansive green spaces of Walthamstow Marsh and popular local parks. The area is a hub for independent food and drink, with favourites like Weirdough Bakery, Curious Goat, Yard Sale Pizza, and Crate St James on your doorstep. Connectivity is excellent, with St James Street Overground and Blackhorse Road Tube within easy walking distance, providing fast, efficient links across London.
