Nestled in a highly sought-after location, this chain-free Victorian terraced house immediately captivates with a red-brick facade and charming tiled path.

Step inside to discover a bright, open-plan living area anchored by high-quality engineered walnut flooring throughout the ground floor. The spacious reception room at the front, featuring an elegant bay window, flows seamlessly into a stylish kitchen and dining room at the rear, which includes a practical breakfast bar. Beyond the kitchen, a convenient lean-to storage area provides access to the lovely west-facing garden. This outdoor sanctuary features a patio, raised beds, and a versatile summerhouse-style shed—perfect for enjoying the afternoon sun.

The first floor includes two spacious double bedrooms. One bedroom, located at the front of the house, features a bay window and built-in storage, while the other, situated at the back, offers views of the garden. Additionally, there is a modern family shower room that boasts the luxury of underfloor heating. The third, smaller bedroom is currently configured as a study. All three bedrooms retain their character with original wooden floorboards. Furthermore, the attic presents superb potential for conversion into a fourth bedroom and a possible extension (STPP).

The location is truly exceptional. Enjoy immediate access to Lloyd Park, ideal for weekend strolls, the Saturday food market, and the renowned William Morris Gallery and Deeney's. For commuters, travel is effortless, with Walthamstow Central Station just a ten-minute walk away. Local entertainment includes the recently opened Soho Theatre Walthamstow and the historic Walthamstow Trades Hall. You'll find everything you need right on your doorstep, with excellent schools, shops, and popular eateries all within easy reach. Nature lovers will appreciate the vast green spaces of Epping Forest, Walthamstow Wetlands, and Hollow Ponds, all just a walk or short bus ride away.
