This charming four-bedroom Victorian terraced house with a striking red-brick exterior, complete with elegant bay windows and a beautiful front door featuring stained glass, immediately captivates.

The reception room welcomes you with an abundance of natural light streaming through the bay window, stripped floorboards, picture rails, and corning. The spacious kitchen-dining room features an original fireplace, modern kitchen units and a breakfast bar, while opening to the dining area with stylish patterned floor tiles, skylight windows, and bi-fold doors that seamlessly connect to the garden, with a patio area and lawn. A practical WC completes the ground floor.

On the first floor, you'll discover three bedrooms and a family bathroom with a beautiful stained-glass window. The generously sized double bedroom at the front benefits from a bright bay window, while the second double bedroom offers views over the garden and an original fireplace. A versatile third single bedroom provides a perfect space for a child's room or home office.

The impressive loft conversion houses a large double bedroom, en-suite shower room and storage integrated into the eaves. The space is bathed in light from large windows that provide fantastic views and two Velux windows.

Living here, the vibrant Walthamstow Village is just a stone's throw away, offering a mix of independent shops and delightful eateries, including Pavement, Ruff's Bistro, and Peeld. For leisure and entertainment, the traditional Ye Olde Rose & Crown pub is conveniently close, as is the expansive Lloyd Park, home to the renowned William Morris Gallery. Commuting is a breeze with Walthamstow Central Tube station located a short stroll away, providing excellent transport links across London.
