This two-bedroom, ground-floor maisonette has been thoughtfully renovated, combining period charm with contemporary design. From the outset, attention to detail is evident in the original front door, which has been stripped back, repainted and finished with reeded glass panels.

Inside, the hallway features new panelling, fresh coving and a classic cast-iron radiator, complemented by exposed, painted wooden floors. The stairs have also been stripped and repainted to the same high standard. This level of craftsmanship continues into two spacious double bedrooms. The principal bedroom is painted in a deep blue and features a bay window with fitted French shutters and an original painted fireplace. The second double bedroom is equally well-appointed, with fitted wardrobes and its own original fireplace. The home also has a modern shower room finished with chevron tiling.

The heart of the home is the stunning open-plan lounge and kitchen, featuring stripped wooden floors and a working log burner. The modern kitchen offers white cabinetry, a double Belfast sink and sanded wooden floors. This space flows seamlessly into the extension, which boasts a large roof lantern, a cast-iron radiator and striking Crittall doors leading out to the private, west-facing rear garden. The garden enjoys afternoon and evening sun and has been landscaped with raised railway sleeper beds, paving throughout and steps down to a lower level. There is external power, a large powered shed and gated access to Aubrey Way.

Located just a short stroll from Walthamstow Central station, the property is ideally positioned for Lloyd Park and the historic Walthamstow Village. The area is renowned for its independent shops, cafés and restaurants, with local favourites such as Buhler & Co and The Good Egg, as well as excellent pubs including The Queen's Arms, The Raglan, The Village and The Castle.
