ACCOMMODATION

Immaculately presented throughout and extended to now provide a great family home with open social modern spaces. One of its great features is the large open plan kitchen breakfast room to the rear overlooking the garden ideal for those who like to entertain or who have an extended family that visit. A utility room ensures all the noisy appliances are tucked away to make this room much more comfortable. Half of the original garage gives great storage.

An opened up lounge diner extending into the conservatory to the rear offers great flow and spacious accommodation in addition to the kitchen. Three double bedrooms upstairs and modernised bathroom and ensuite make this a great family home.

Externally the garden is private as is the location of the property being at the end of a cul de sac with great parking for multiple cars to the drive at the front.

LARKFIELD

The property is located within easy walking distance of a Tesco superstore, local shops, post office, schools, library, doctors' surgeries and other amenities. There is easy access to the M20's Junction 4
