Description

An impressive entrance via electric gates into a large drive for multiple cars sets the tone. Entering into the house via a welcoming reception hall which is one of the vendors favourite spaces with room to sit with friends and enjoy a coffee or read a book looking out to the garden through patio doors. A nicely sized lounge sits to the front of the house with feature wood burning stove for those cosy evenings in watching the tv. The kitchen opens up into the main hub of the house with its bright plain décor and quality fitted kitchen offering a breakfast bar to sit up to as well as an island unit to socially engage around, no doubt enjoying a bottle of wine from the built in chiller. The more formal dining space links up with this area and offers French doors to the side as well as those to the rear from the kitchen area. An essential to the family house these days is the utility room and downstairs cloakroom that sits to rear of the kitchen and offers a door to the garden. A great entertaining space has been adapted from the original double garage that has now been halved to enjoy a bar with bifolding doors to the private garden. If entertaining is not for you then this would make a great further study or garden room.

Upstairs off a central landing, big enough to currently provide extra wardrobe space, the property offers five good sized bedrooms. the principal bedroom has built in wardrobe space and a dressing area as well as a modern walk in ensuite shower room. Four further bedrooms, three of which are doubles utilise the stunning family bathroom with mosaic tiled floor and metro brick tiled walls. It offers a bath rather than shower with a waterfall tap.

The sunny South West facing garden is deceptive in its size and offers great space for a family to entertain themselves, friends and family. Mainly laid to lawn with mature beds a large social patio runs the length of the back of the house incorporating the many entrances to the house. A further circular patio gives dining options as well as an oak framed covered gazebo with hot tub and chimenea currently located to take in the later evenings once it gets a little less warm.

Don't miss the opportunity to take in the delights this wonderful home has to offer and book your private tour from our staff in our West Malling office.

RYARSH

Ryarsh is a popular Kent village is believed to date back to 1050 and sits at the foot of the North Downs with wonderful local walking routes. The village has a local primary school, St Martins Church, village hall, playing fields and playground. The Duke of Wellington public house is popular with locals and visitors alike.

Nearby is the historic market town of West Malling with a broad high street of specialist shops, Post Office, Boots Pharmacy and Tesco stores and a great selection of restaurants and public houses. West Malling and Borough Green railway stations serve London Victoria, London Bridge & Charing Cross.
