ACCOMMODATION

The property is immaculately presented throughout and offers great character from its Queen Anne Period. Its starts with a fabulous spacious entrance hall with panelled walls which continue into the large Drawing room with three large windows allowing light into the room, architectural columns and feature open fire. Further reception rooms are found in the centre of the home with French doors and windows to the centre beautiful courtyard garden. The garden also has access from the modern kitchen via similar French doors and windows. Fabulous in the summer to open up both spaces to the private courtyard to entertain and get that inside outside marriage that everyone wants.

Two double bedrooms with modern ensuite shower wet rooms are provided plus a further shower room for guests. Storage spaces throughout include a magnificent cellar under the main drawing room that could be established and used as further residential space, subject to planning. A large storage room links in the drawing room to the second reception room.

Within the beautiful courtyard garden is a door leading to a large workshop that again has options for developing into residential space which in turn allows access to the private parking area.
