Description

A spacious and airy house offering good sized accommodation throughout. Approached as you come into the development with ease of access for those with less mobility the house sits amongst others of its type and has the advantage of a garage directly next door to the property with parking in front. A welcoming hallway gives access to all areas. To the left is the good sized modernised kitchen with window looking out to the front. To the other side of the hallway passing the stairs is the main lounge. A bright spacious room with feature window and French doors to the personal terrace. A second reception designed and used as dining room has the potential to be used as a bedroom if required as this in turn links to a downstairs shower room between this and the kitchen.

The hallway gives access to the first floor with the added benefit of a stair lift installed for those with less mobility, the property has a spacious landing with access to two good sized bedrooms. Both bedrooms have built in wardrobe storage and windows looking out to the rear, both are good sized double rooms. A shower wet room services both bedrooms on this floor. The stairs are straight and benefit from a stair lift so making the first floor accessible to all.

The communal gardens are lovingly looked after and the personal terrace gives an opportunity to sit out and enjoy good weather. Enough space for a dining set is provided by a patio.
