Accessed via a pedestrian path and located in the charming setting of Park Terrace, just off Main Road in Sundridge, this delightful older style end of terrace house presents an excellent opportunity for those seeking a comfortable family home in a tucked away position.

Downstairs the cottage features a well-proportioned reception room, ideal for both entertaining guests and relaxing with family, a kitchen and bathroom. Upstairs, there are three good-sized bedrooms, offering plenty of space for growing families, guests or a home office. Outside to the rear is an enclosed courtyard with a useful outbuilding (with power, light and plumbing for a washing machine). To the front of the cottage there is a very large garden, being mainly lawn with some shrubs and a garden shed.

The surrounding area offers local amenities, schools and transport links all within easy reach, making it an ideal choice for families and commuters alike.

Combining comfort, practicality and a desirable village location, this is a fantastic opportunity to acquire a home in this popular part of Kent with No Onward Chain.

NB: There are rights of pedestrian access over the footpath leading to the property from the Main Road, these are also enjoyed by neighbouring properties in Park Terrace. There is no right of access to Park Terrace from New Road.
