LOCATION

Bourne House is situated in a quiet country lane on the edge of the highly regarded village of Plaxtol, an attractive and well-established Kent village known for its strong community and surrounding countryside.

The village itself offers a local shop with post office, popular public house/restaurant, parish church, and a well-regarded primary school with adjoining nursery, making it ideal for family life. There is also immediate access to footpaths and bridleways, providing excellent walking and outdoor leisure opportunities across the surrounding countryside.

For more extensive amenities, the nearby towns of Tonbridge (approx. 5 miles) and Sevenoaks (approx. 7 miles) provide a wide range of shopping, supermarkets including Waitrose, Sainsbury's and M&S, restaurants, leisure facilities and mainline railway stations. Commuting is particularly convenient, with:

Borough Green & Wrotham station (closer option) offering services to London Victoria

Sevenoaks station providing fast services to London Bridge, Waterloo East and Charing Cross

Easy access to the A21, connecting directly to the M25, and the M20 for routes towards London, Gatwick, and the Channel Tunnel

The area is especially well regarded for its excellent schooling, including:

Grammar schools such as Weald of Kent (Sevenoaks annexe) and Tonbridge Grammar

The Judd School in Tonbridge

A wide selection of highly regarded independent schools including Hilden Grange, Hilden Oaks, Somerhill and Kent College

Overall, the location offers a highly desirable balance of rural tranquillity and accessibility, making it particularly attractive for commuters and families alike.
