SUMMARY

Ground Floor

The property is entered via a front door leading into a welcoming reception hallway with attractive tiled flooring, radiator with cabinet cover, built-in cloaks cupboard, and a charming internal pane window. A separate WC features a heritage wash hand basin, tiled flooring, and pine cabinet.

An outer hallway provides access to the outside, a fuse cupboard, and access to the integral double garage with electric door, power, lighting, and overhead storage.

The inner hallway is spacious and features stairs to the first floor with understairs storage, fitted shelving, and a radiator. Double doors open into the principal sitting room, enjoying views to the rear garden, with direct access outside, and centred around a striking multi-fuel burner with stone fireplace surround. Double doors lead to the study.

The older part of the house offers a wealth of character, including a study with flagstone flooring and external access, and access to a cellar via a hatch and steps, and a charming double-sided multi-fuel burner set beneath the chimney breast

- Grade II listed charm — Early-mid 19th-century lodge cottage with flint rubble elevations, red-brick dressings, and rich architectural detail.
- Four well-proportioned double bedrooms — All enjoying garden views, character features, and excellent natural light.
- Originally the gate lodge to Halstead Place
- Spacious principal suite — Triple-aspect bedroom with vaulted ceiling, dressing area, and access to an interconnecting bathroom.
- Versatile reception spaces — Multiple characterful rooms including canted dining room, and study,
- Period features throughout — Vaulted ceilings, flagstone floors, multi-fuel burners (including a double-sided), and original timber details.
- Kitchen and utility — Granite worktops, Bosch appliances, breakfast room access, and additional storage/utility space.
- Double garage with power and light with driveway, further detached workshop
- Beautiful mature gardens — Landscaped grounds, established planting, and a delightful garden room ideal for outdoor living.

This space flows into a open distinctive canted dining room with a triple window outlook, wooden flooring, and feature beam.

The breakfast room provides further access outside and leads into the well-appointed kitchen, fitted with a range of base and wall units, granite work surfaces, five-ring gas hob with Bosch extractor hood, Bosch oven, Bosch Microwave/combi oven integrated dishwasher, and American style two door large fridge freezer.

A separate utility room offers additional storage, a Belfast-style sink, and space for appliances.

First Floor

The first floor has a spacious landing with overhead natural roof light, range of overhead storage cupboards. leading to four bedrooms with walk-in boiler room which houses the boiler and hot water cylinder.

The canted principal bedroom suite includes a dressing area with fitted wardrobes and leads with steps up to an interconnecting ensuite bathroom. The bedroom itself enjoys a triple aspect, semi-vaulted ceiling, and excellent natural light.

Bedroom four double aspect views over garden features semi- vaulted ceilings, wooden flooring and views over the garden

Bedroom two is dual aspect with semi-vaulted ceiling to one side and benefits from access to an interconnecting bathroom shared with the principal suite.

Bedroom three is panelled to two walls and enjoys double aspect views over the gardens.

There are two bathrooms, both well-appointed with fitted suites, cabinets, and heated towel rails.

OUTSIDE

The property is approached via a driveway providing parking for several vehicles and access to a double garage with electric up and over door, power and lighting and overhead storage.

The gardens are a particular feature — beautifully established and thoughtfully arranged, including:

- A paved patio area ideal for entertaining
- Expanses of lawn bordered by mature shrubs and trees
- Fruit trees including apple and plum
- A delightful wooded area

A standout feature is the charming garden room, with brick surround, windows, overhead rafters, and a mature grapevine — creating a perfect setting for dining and relaxation.

A secondary access via Deerleap Lane leads through a five-bar gate to an additional driveway and detached double garage which has the potential for further development use, perhaps ancillary accommodation and subject to planning and building regulations.

The property enjoys a delightful setting within grounds approaching one acre.

LOCATION

Knockholt is a charming, affluent village that is conveniently situated just outside Greater London, amid Kent countryside and just north of Sevenoaks. Designated as an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, it benefits from excellent road and swift rail connections to London, international airports and Channel ports, along with a fine selection of schooling in both the state and private sectors. The village itself has a local shop, public houses, an award winning garden centre and an ancient church. A more extensive selection of shops and banking facilities can be found in Sevenoaks or Bromley. Schools include Sevenoaks, Newstead Woods, St Olave's, Combe Bank, St Katharine's Primary and Halstead Community Primary School.

For commuters, Knockholt Station is just over two miles away and Orpington Station four miles away. Both provide easy access to London terminals at London Bridge, Charing Cross with Victoria trains also available from Orpington. Access to the national motorway system is via the M25 junction 4, approximately two miles away. The area is renowned for its walks and bridle paths and nearby golf clubs.

PROPERTY HISTORY

South Lodge originated in the early-to-mid 19th century as a gate lodge to the Halstead Place estate, owned by John Atkins (1760–1838), a wealthy West India merchant and former Lord Mayor of London.
