A rare opportunity to purchase a two-bedroom, detached bungalow with gorgeous hillside views in the quiet hamlet of Dalwhinnie. With well-proportioned room sizes this property offers an ideal first-time buy as well as a potential investment opportunity having previously been rented out as a short-term holiday let. Comprising of entrance vestibule, bright and spacious lounge with electric fireplace and double aspect windows, kitchen with ample storage, two double bedrooms both benefiting from fitted wardrobes with the main bedroom offering an ensuite WC, the family shower room completes the accommodation. This property also benefits from double glazing throughout and electric storage heating.

Private outdoor space includes fully enclosed front and side gardens with garden shed and driveway suitable for 2/3 vehicles.

Appealing to a range of potential purchasers, viewing is recommended.

LOCATION

Located in the picturesque mountain setting of the Cairngorms, Dalwhinnie is a modest hamlet ideal for people looking to indulge in rural living but still benefiting from easy travel to larger towns and nearby attractions.

Local amenities include convenience store and fuel station and cafés. A more comprehensive range of amenities can be found in the neighbouring towns of Kingussie located approximately 14 miles away and Aviemore located approximately 16 miles away. Nearby leisure activities include Newtonmore Golf Club, breath-taking hill walking routes, water sports centre and Cairngorm Snow Centre, Cairngorm National Park and Dalwhinnie Distillery.

Dalwhinnie has a train station and bus stops situated throughout the village, other travel routes including the A9 are easily accessible from the property. Inverness is approximately 56 miles North of the property. Perth is approximately 57 miles South.

For younger children, primary schooling is available approximately 10 miles away at Newtonmore Primary School. Older children would attend Kingussie High School. A school bus service is provided for both schools.

DIRECTIONS

From Inverness take the A9 South bound and follow for approximately 47.9 miles. Take a right turn exiting the A9 onto the A889 General Wade's Military Road signposted for Dalwhinnie and Crubenmore. Follow General Wade's Military Road for 5 miles. Take a left at the junction to stay on General Wade's Military Road and continue into Dalwhinnie following the road for 0.8 miles. Fern Cottage will be on your right-hand side, clearly signposted by a South Forrest for-sale board.
