Hurst are pleased to bring to market this extended, five bedroom, semi-detached family home that has been owned by the same family since it was first built. The property offers spacious and versatile accommodation throughout and would also lend itself to a garage conversion (STPP) if the new owner wanted further reception rooms. The property is situated in this popular and desirable location in the heart of the village of Hazlemere and is in the catchment of the excellent first and middle schools and benefits from a level plot whilst also being a short walk of shops, local parks and bus routes. This wonderful home as undergone a vast expansion over the years and now provides an additional reception room to the ground floor and two further bedrooms and w/c to the first floor making for a substantial family home. The accommodation includes; entrance hallway, large lounge/dining room, fitted kitchen, study/family room, family bathroom, five bedrooms and an additional w/c. The property further benefits from; gas central heating, UPVC double glazing, garage, block paved driveway parking for several vehicles and an enclosed and very secluded rear garden which is bordered by established flower and shrub borders and comes with a patio area that is perfect for entertaining. This property really is a superb home, comes with no chain and an early viewing is highly recommended.
