Sundays Well & Annexe

Manor Park Kings Bromley DE13 7JA

Positioned within established 0.85 acre formal grounds is Sundays Well, a traditional detached home with annexe enjoying an enviable setting on the regal Manor Park. With excellent potential to extend or remodel further within the established plot, Sundays Well has previously received extensive refurbishments to include an extension, a full rewire and a new central heating system, as well as having the accommodation remodelled to create a self contained annexe which could be adapted to create extended space to the main property with ease.

Sundays Well enjoys traditional features including stained glass windows, impressive tall ceilings and an elegant Grade II Listed dovecote within the exceptional wrap around gardens, alongside enjoying the tranquillity and privacy offered within the secluded private setting. This individual home offers open plan living and two bedrooms to the main property alongside a spacious one bedroom self contained annexe, presenting excellent scope to extend further and to create a 'dream home' within this exquisite location.

The highly desirable Manor Park is a private community home to a collection of prestigious and individual residences, being just minutes from the village centre. The popular village of Kings Bromley is home to an active and well served community centred around All Saints Church, with additional amenities including a primary school, a village hall, a Co-Op general store, The Royal Oak pub and the show field and cricket ground.

An area renowned for schooling, The Richard Crosse Primary School is within walking distance and feeds into John Taylor High in Barton under Needwood, both of which maintain an Ofsted ‘Outstanding’ rating, and the John Taylor Free School is also within a short drive. In addition, there are a superb range of private schools within close reach including Lichfield Cathedral, Repton and Denstone College.

The Cathedral City of Lichfield is just 10 minutes away, having a thriving and historic centre home to an array of shopping and leisure facilities and a lively café, bar and restaurant scene, including one boasting a Michelin star. The renowned medieval Cathedral and Beacon Park host regular concerts and festivals throughout the year, and there are various health of leisure clubs in the area including Lichfield Golf & Country Club.

Being a well connected location ideal for commuters, two rail stations in Lichfield provide direct links to Birmingham and London (in 80 mins) and the village is well placed for access to the A38, A515 and M6 Toll. Birmingham International, East Midlands and Manchester Airports are also all within an easy drive.
