Ringwood Gardens, London

£575,000

A well-proportioned two-bedroom house (1,339 sq ft) situated in a desirable residential setting, enjoying attractive views towards Richmond Park.

The ground floor centres around a spacious kitchen/dining room with direct access to the garden, creating an ideal space for both everyday family life and entertaining. The cooking and food preparation area is enhanced by a high-end German island kitchen, offering generous workspace, excellent storage, and a sleek contemporary finish — perfect for keen cooks.

The first floor comprises an exceptionally large and bright living room, flooded with natural light from substantial windows. In addition, there is a separate family room, providing flexible accommodation that could serve as a snug, home office, or playroom.
