Swanfield Street, London

£750,000

A well-proportioned three-bedroom period apartment set within the highly sought-after Boundary Estate, E2, offering an excellent opportunity for cosmetic updating and personalisation.

Situated on the fourth floor of Sunbury House, the property comprises a spacious reception room, separate kitchen, three bedrooms and a family bathroom. The apartment retains attractive period features including original sash windows, timber flooring and generous ceiling heights.

While the property would benefit from modernisation, it offers well-balanced accommodation and an excellent opportunity for a purchaser to create a stylish home tailored to their own taste.
