Macoma Road, London, SE18

£595,000

This four-bedroom residence boasts a generous private garden, beautiful double-reception room, a well-equipped shower room, a spacious bathroom, and ample storage space throughout. With plenty of potential for personalization, it's an excellent opportunity for first-time buyers or families seeking proximity to a variety of local schools.

Plumstead and Woolwich, pivotal areas in the evolution of South East London, showcase remarkable transformations in Woolwich Town Centre and its environs. Woolwich distinguishes itself with outstanding mainline rail services, the DLR, and now, the Elizabeth Line, creating seamless connections to Canary Wharf (8 minutes), Bond Street (21 minutes), and Heathrow (47 minutes). The swift redevelopment of the Royal Arsenal along the Thames's south bank has established Woolwich as a highly sought-after urban hub. Meanwhile, Plumstead offers a serene ambiance with delightful coffee spots, diverse dining choices, local shops, and expansive green spaces that complement its captivating period properties.
