Eastfields Avenue, Putney, London

£950,000

Set on the 8th floor in a sought-after Wandsworth address, this striking three bedroom flat spans 1,000 sq ft of thoughtfully laid out living space, filled with natural light and finished to a contemporary standard throughout.

The reception area comes with fitted storage and ample room for a dining table, making it an ideal space for entertaining as well as everyday living.

The kitchen has a sleek, contemporary design, with integrated appliances and generous fitted cabinetry that combine style with everyday practicality. Opening directly onto the balcony, it lends itself perfectly to al fresco dining in the summer months, with room enough for larger get-togethers. A generous reception room leads through to the winter garden, offering uninterrupted, sweeping views over the River Thames.
