Savoy Court, 245 Cromwell Road, Earls Court £415,000

A sophisticated top-floor apartment with far-reaching views, two private balconies and off-street parking, ideally positioned between Kensington and Earl's Court.

Occupying an elevated position within an attractive portered building with lift access, this stylish one-bedroom apartment enjoys a desirable south-facing aspect, offering an abundance of natural light and impressive views across London. The two private balconies provide valuable outdoor space, while the building's porter service and off-street parking add to the appeal.

Ideally located within easy reach of Earl's Court Underground station, as well as the boutiques, restaurants and amenities of Kensington, the property combines a prime West London address with everyday convenience.
