

pomp

properties

Great Cumberland Place, Hyde Park £850 Per Week

A well-presented and intelligently arranged one-bedroom apartment situated on the fifth floor of Cumberland Court, an established and sought-after mansion block in the heart of the West End. The property spans approximately 55 sq m and benefits from lift service, a resident porter, and the security of a well-maintained, professionally managed building.

The layout comprises a spacious and light-filled reception room, a separate fully fitted kitchen, a comfortable double bedroom with integrated storage, and a contemporary bathroom. The apartment blends classic character with practical design, creating an ideal Central London residence — whether as a main home or an elegant pied-à-terre.

Ideally positioned for convenient access to Marble Arch and Bond Street stations, the property is surrounded by world-class shopping, dining and

