St Petersburg Place, Hyde Park

£360 Per Week

A charming studio apartment set on the highly desirable St Petersburg Place in the heart of Bayswater. Positioned on the raised ground floor, the apartment is tastefully presented and features wooden flooring, a well-designed kitchenette, and a separate modern shower room, creating a comfortable and practical living space.

The property is situated on a peaceful residential street, just moments from the open green spaces of Kensington Gardens and Hyde Park. Excellent transport links are close at hand, with Bayswater Underground Station (Circle & District lines) and Queensway Station (Central line) both within a short walk. The surrounding area offers an excellent selection of boutiques, cafés, and high-end restaurants, making this an ideal central London location.
