Title contains restrictions or restrictive covenants

Here is a summary but a property lawyer can advise further: - Registered restriction (entry dated 23 February 2022): No sale, new mortgage or other change to the registered ownership can be registered without a certificate signed by St. Mary's Stannington Management Company Limited (Co. Regn. No. 6385307) of St. Ann's Wharf, 112 Quayside, Newcastle upon Tyne NE99 1SB confirming that clauses 40.3 and 40.4 of the Transfer dated 28 January 2022 have been complied with. In plain language: you cannot register a sale or a charge (mortgage) or other change affecting the registered title unless the management company certifies that certain steps in the 2022 Transfer have been followed. - Restrictive covenants in the Transfer dated 29 May 2007 (and varied by deeds dated 18 January 2013 and 25 March 2014) and in the Deed of Mutual Covenant dated 12 October 2018 (copies filed under ND153109 and ND211600). 'Restrictive covenant' means a promise recorded against the land that limits what an owner may do (for example, about use of the property, alterations, boundaries or appearance). The register records that these covenants exist but does not give the detailed wording — you must read those deeds to know the exact limits and obligations.

Title contains beneficial rights or easements

Here is a summary but a property lawyer can advise further:- The property has the benefit of any legal easements granted by the Transfer dated 28 January 2022 (see copy filed). An easement is a positive right over someone else's land — for example a right of way, or a right to run services — but the register does not list the exact easements, so check the Transfer for details. - The Transfer dated 28 January 2022 contains provisions as to light or air and boundary structures. In plain terms, there may be rights or protections allowing light or preventing obstruction of windows, and arrangements about who must keep boundary walls or fences and how they may be altered. The exact details are in the Transfer. - A right of entry is annexed to the rentcharge (noted 28 January 2022). This means the person who holds the rentcharge has a recorded right to enter the land (for example to carry out work or enforce the rentcharge) in certain circumstances. - The register also records a provision about the creation and passing of easements and a provision as to the grant of rights in specified events (an estate-contract/equitable easement note). This means the deeds include arrangements under which additional rights (such as access or service easements) may be created or passed to others in particular situations. You should read the 2022 Transfer and the earlier deeds for the precise scope.

Estate charges are payable these are approximately £350.00 per year.
