POSTERN CRESCENT MORPETH NE61 2JN

A well presented three bedroom semi detached home situated in the highly sought after area of High Church, Morpeth. Offered for sale with the added benefit of no onward chain, the property features double glazing and gas central heating throughout, and is an ideal purchase for a range of buyers.

The accommodation briefly comprises an entrance porch leading into a welcoming hallway, a comfortable lounge, kitchen, utility room and a ground floor bathroom with separate WC. To the first floor, there are three well proportioned bedrooms.

Externally, the property benefits from off street parking to the front and a generously sized garden to the rear, perfect for outdoor enjoyment.

The location offers convenient access to local amenities within Kirkhill, including community shops, first school, and everyday essentials, while the historic market town centre of Morpeth provides a wider range of facilities such as supermarkets, independent retailers, cafés, restaurants, and leisure options. Excellent transport links are also nearby, making the area ideal for commuters.

Appealing to first time buyers, families, and investors alike, early viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate the accommodation on offer.

TENURE & COUNCIL TAX BAND

Freehold.

Title contains restrictions or restrictive covenants

Here is a summary but a property lawyer can advise further: - The property is subject to restrictive covenants (rules that limit what can be done with the land) contained in a legal document from 1982. These are common in former local authority properties to ensure the area is maintained in a certain way. - There is a standard restriction which means the property cannot be sold or transferred without the consent of the mortgage lender, Barclays Bank UK PLC. This is a routine requirement that will be settled by the solicitors as part of the sale process.

Title contains beneficial rights or easements

Here is a summary but a property lawyer can advise further:- The property benefits from rights (known as easements) granted in a legal document from 1982. These typically include positive rights such as the right to use shared service pipes or access routes. - The property also has the benefit of legal rights provided under the Housing Act 1980, which ensures the home has all necessary access to essential services and utilities.

Council Tax Band: A (Source gov.uk Checked April 2026).
