TENURE & COUNCIL TAX BAND

Freehold - We cannot verify the Tenure of the property as we do not have access to the documentation. Purchasers must ask their legal advisor to confirm the Tenure.

Title contains restrictions or restrictive covenants

Here is a summary but a property lawyer can advise further: - Management company certificate restriction (from Transfer dated 5 September 2016) — the register says that no sale or other dealing affecting the title may be registered unless St Mary's Stannington Management Company Limited signs a certificate confirming that clauses 38.3 and 38.4 of the 2016 Transfer have been complied with. In plain English: you cannot register a sale or similar transaction at the Land Registry without a signed certificate from the named management company confirming certain transfer conditions have been met. You should check the Transfer to see what clauses 38.3 and 38.4 require (likely matters such as estate service charges, maintenance obligations or the management company's consent). - Lender consent restriction — the register also requires a written consent from the current mortgagee (the proprietor of the registered charge dated 5 September 2016, i.e. Santander UK PLC) before a sale or similar dealing can be registered. In plain English: the lender's written permission is needed to register a sale or transfer while the mortgage is on the property. - Restrictive covenants originating in the Transfer dated 29 May 2007 and varied by later deeds (2013 and 2014) — these are promises affecting the land which limit what owners can do (examples commonly include limits on building extensions, fences, the use of the property, or requirements to use particular materials). The 2016 Transfer also contains covenants and includes specific provisions about light or air and boundary structures. The exact limits are set out in the original 2007 Transfer and the later variation deeds (copies are filed under ND153109) and must be read to know the precise restrictions.

Title contains beneficial rights or easements

Here is a summary but a property lawyer can advise further:- The land benefits from rights granted, and is subject to rights reserved, by the Transfer dated 5 September 2016 — the register records both rights given to this property and rights reserved against it. These could be rights such as a right of way, rights to use services (pipes, drains, cables) or similar. The Transfer copy will state the exact rights granted and reserved. - Deeds and deed variations (2013) refer to easements and variations of easements — the 2013 deed(s) altered easements created in 2007, so some rights affecting how the property uses or accesses neighbouring land have been varied. You should check those deed(s) to see what exact rights (for example rights of way, rights to drains or access for maintenance) are in place.
