LOCATION

Fowlmere is a most desirable and highly sought after south Cambridgeshire village which enjoys an excellent range of local amenities including village hall, pre school nursery, primary school, historic church, public house and restaurant as well as being home to a RSPB reserve. The university city of Cambridge is about 8 miles away. For the commuter there are mainline stations close by in Shepreth and Foxton for London's King's Cross and Cambridge and Whittlesford for London Liverpool Street. The village is also well-placed for major routes including the M11 motorway at Duxford (junction 10) and Harston (junction 11).
