Hobart Road

Cambridge,
CB1 3PU

An established end-of-terrace home, stylishly updated by the current owners, offering a versatile open-plan living/dining room and benefitting from a private rear garden. The property is ideally situated within this ever-popular residential area just off Mill Road, with close proximity to Cambridge railway station, Cambridge city centre and major commuter links. Offered with no onward chain.

LOCATION

Hobart Road is a highly regarded residential street situated just off the vibrant and eclectic Mill Road, one of Cambridge's most popular and well-served areas. The location offers immediate access to an excellent range of independent cafés, restaurants, shops and everyday amenities, together with larger supermarkets and leisure facilities nearby. The property is within easy walking and cycling distance of Cambridge city centre and Cambridge railway station, providing regular services to London King's Cross and Liverpool Street, making it particularly attractive for commuters. The area is also well placed for access to Cambridge Biomedical Campus, Addenbrooke's Hospital and a number of well-regarded schools, parks and green spaces. The nearby Romsey Recreation Ground further enhances the area's appeal for families and professionals alike.
