LOCATION

Corn Lane is located in the highly desirable area of Trumpington, offering a blend of suburban tranquility and convenient access to city life. The development is close to Trumpington Meadows and Byron's Pool, providing ample opportunities for outdoor activities and relaxation. Trumpington High Street is nearby, with a range of local amenities such as shops, cafes, and a pharmacy, while larger shopping and leisure facilities, including Cambridge Leisure Park and The Grand Arcade, are easily accessible by car or public transport. For commuters, Corn Lane is ideally positioned. The soon-to-be-open Cambridge South Station, just a short distance away, will provide even more convenient access to London and the wider region. Cambridge South will offer direct services to London King's Cross and London Liverpool Street, with travel times of approximately 50-60 minutes. Cambridge train station, also nearby, currently offers these regular services. The guided busway provides easy access to Addenbrooke's Hospital, the Cambridge Biomedical Campus, and the city centre, and the M11 motorway offers excellent road connectivity for commuters. With reputable schools such as Trumpington Community College within reach, Corn Lane is a perfect location for families and professionals alike.
