LOCATION

Streetly End is a small and picturesque hamlet situated on the edge of the highly regarded village of West Wickham, surrounded by attractive rolling countryside and offering a peaceful semi-rural setting. West Wickham benefits from a traditional public house, parish church and active village community, whilst the nearby villages of Balsham and Linton provide a wider range of everyday amenities including convenience stores, post offices, cafés, public houses, highly regarded primary schooling and medical facilities. The larger market town of Saffron Walden is also within easy reach and offers an excellent range of independent shops, supermarkets, restaurants and leisure facilities. For commuters, the property is well positioned for access to the A11, A1307 and M11, providing links to Cambridge, Newmarket, Stansted Airport and London. Mainline rail services are available from both Whittlesford Parkway and Audley End stations, offering regular services to Cambridge and London Liverpool Street. The area is also particularly well regarded for its countryside walks, cycling routes and access to a number of well-respected state and independent schools, making it an attractive location for families and those seeking a quieter lifestyle without feeling isolated.
