A handsome Victorian townhouse occupying a prominent position along Newmarket Road, offering beautifully arranged accommodation extending across four impressive floors. Rich in period character, the property retains an array of original features including cast iron fireplaces, moulded cornicing and sash style windows, whilst having been thoughtfully enhanced for modern family living, centred around a stunning open plan lower ground floor kitchen, dining and family space. Perfectly positioned within the heart of the city, the property enjoys immediate access to Midsummer Common together with an exceptional selection of vibrant cafés, restaurants, independent shops and everyday amenities nearby.

LOCATION

Newmarket Road occupies an exceptionally convenient and highly desirable position on the edge of Cambridge city centre, just moments from the open green spaces of Midsummer Common and the River Cam. The property is ideally placed for immediate access into the historic city centre, offering a superb combination of vibrant city living and attractive outdoor space. The surrounding area provides an outstanding range of amenities including independent cafés, restaurants, public houses, supermarkets and local shops, together with nearby leisure facilities and riverside walks. Cambridge's renowned historic core, universities and cultural attractions are all within comfortable walking and cycling distance. For commuters, Cambridge Railway Station provides regular services to London King's Cross and Liverpool Street, whilst the property also benefits from excellent road links via the A14, M11 and wider regional road network. The location is also well placed for access to both Anglia Ruskin University and the city's leading science and business parks. An ideal setting for those seeking the convenience and lifestyle benefits of central Cambridge living whilst remaining close to green open spaces and excellent transport connections.
