LOCATION

Located in a popular residential area just north of Cambridge city centre, Northfield Avenue offers a blend of suburban living and city convenience. This newly constructed scheme will be popular with families, professionals, and investors, thanks to its excellent transport links, access to local amenities, and proximity to green spaces.

It is just a short cycle ride or bus journey from Cambridge's historic centre, the Science and Business Parks, and Cambridge North railway station, making it ideal for commuters. There are a range of local shops, supermarkets, cafes, and schools nearby, along with easy access to the A14 and M11 for those travelling further afield.
