LOCATION

The property occupies a rather special and picturesque position, set well back from Chapel Road, set deep into its own delightful generous plot which includes an attractive wooden bridge set over a stream and backing onto paddocks. The unspoilt rural village of Weston Colville has its own fine Church and cricket ground. The village is located about 13 miles South East of the University city of Cambridge and about 8 miles from the historic horse racing town of Newmarket. The larger close by villages of Balsham and Linton provide more extensive amenities and for the commuter there are main line stations at Whittlesford and Cambridge as well as a M11 motorway access point at Duxford (junction 10) and Stump Cross (junction 9).
