LOCATION

Victoria House occupies a prominent and highly convenient position on St John's Street, at the heart of the well-regarded and historic village of Duxford. The village offers an excellent range of local amenities including a primary school, village shop, post office, public houses and well-regarded local facilities, all contributing to a strong sense of community. Duxford is particularly well placed for access to Cambridge, which lies approximately 10 miles to the north, and to the nearby market town of Saffron Walden. Communication links are excellent, with the M11 (Junction 10) providing fast access to London and the wider motorway network, while Whittlesford Parkway railway station offers regular mainline services into London Liverpool Street. The surrounding countryside is particularly attractive, with open fields and village walks close at hand, while the nearby Duxford Airfield and Imperial War Museum provide both historic interest and leisure opportunities. Overall, the location combines the charm of a thriving south Cambridgeshire village with excellent connectivity and access to the amenities of the city and beyond.
