North End

Bassingbourn,
SG8 5PD

A substantial detached Grade II Listed residence of exceptional charm and character, with rendered elevations beneath a pitched tiled roof. The property offers beautifully presented, versatile and well-proportioned accommodation throughout and benefits from an adjoining converted barn, creating a striking and atmospheric dining hall ideal for both family living and entertaining.

The property stands well within its own attractive, mature and thoughtfully landscaped grounds, providing a high degree of privacy and seclusion, and extending in all to approximately 0.54 acres.

Within the grounds is a particularly useful range of outbuildings, including a substantial two-storey barn with adjoining pole barn workshop, offering significant potential for a variety of uses, subject to the necessary consents. Further ancillary buildings include a detached studio, summerhouse, double garage, garden sheds, log-fired hot tub and sauna.

Occupying a delightful setting, the property combines period character and architectural interest with excellent outside space and a versatile range of outbuildings, creating a rare opportunity in an attractive and highly regarded location.
