LOCATION

This charming and historic village, nestled amidst the gently undulating countryside of South Cambridgeshire, offers a quintessential rural lifestyle while maintaining excellent connectivity to Cambridge and surrounding towns. Weston Colville itself is a close-knit and friendly village with a strong sense of community. It features a recently renovated and well-used village hall that hosts a variety of events, classes, and gatherings, a large recreation ground with a children's play area, and a cricket pitch that's home to a popular local team. The village is crisscrossed by a network of picturesque footpaths and bridleways, offering miles of walking and riding opportunities through beautiful countryside and open farmland, ideal for nature lovers and outdoor enthusiasts. Essential amenities can be found in the neighbouring villages of Balsham and Burrough Green, including a primary school, pub, church, and convenience store. More comprehensive facilities are available in the historic market town of Newmarket, just a short drive away, known for its wide array of shops, restaurants, racing heritage, and cultural events. The nearby village of Linton also offers a Co-op, medical centre, cafes, and access to the highly regarded Linton Village College. For commuters, the location offers excellent road links via the A11, connecting swiftly to the A14 and M11, making travel to Cambridge, Stansted Airport, and London straightforward. Rail connections are available from nearby Dullingham and Whittlesford Parkway stations, with direct services to Cambridge and London Liverpool Street or King's Cross. Families are particularly well-catered for, with a choice of excellent local schooling options including the Ofsted-rated 'Good' Linton Village College and several well-regarded independent schools in Cambridge such as The Perse, St Mary's, and The Leys.
