LOCATION

Bourn is a highly regarded and much sought-after village, positioned to the west of Cambridge and surrounded by attractive open countryside. The village enjoys a strong sense of community and offers a range of local amenities centred around the popular Manor Farm. This includes the village farm shop, an excellent local butchers and The Stove café, which together provide a vibrant hub for both residents and visitors. Additional amenities include a public house, church, recreation ground and primary school, doctor's surgery, an award-winning Bangladeshi and Indian Diner, a convenience store/shop with post office all within a short walk and the Cambridge Country Club & Golf Course all contributing to the village's appeal. More comprehensive facilities can be found in nearby Comberton and Cambourne, with Cambridge city centre also within easy reach. The village is particularly well placed for access to Cambridge and the wider region, with excellent road connections via the A428 providing swift links to the city, the M11 and onward routes to London and the Midlands. Cambridge railway station offers fast connections to London King's Cross.
