No onward chain.

LOCATION

Cutting Road is situated within the highly desirable and much sought-after village of Great Abington, just 7 miles south of the historic university city of Cambridge and the Addenbrooke's Biomedical Campus. Ideally located within the heart of the Cambridge science and research cluster, the village offers convenient access to Granta Park, the Babraham Research Campus, and other leading scientific hubs. Perfectly suited for commuters, the area benefits from excellent road links and proximity to mainline railway stations providing fast connections to Cambridge and London. This particular property forms part of an exclusive and thoughtfully designed development, combining architectural distinction with quality craftsmanship. Set along a quiet, tree-lined road, the home enjoys a peaceful setting within walking distance of the village centre and its wide range of amenities, including a village shop/post office, nursery and primary schools, a popular inn/restaurant, and a recently opened coffee shop. Residents also benefit from the vibrant community facilities at the Institute, which offers a café, meeting rooms, and event space overlooking the village green and cricket pitch—creating a true sense of village life.
