LOCATION

Kelshall is a quaint and picturesque village nestled in the English countryside. Located in Hertfordshire, it is characterized by its charming cottages, lush green fields, and a sense of timelessness. The village is small in size and has a close-knit community, with the historic St. Faiths church at its heart. Located just one and a half miles from Therfield the village benefits from the reputable Fox and Duck public house, Therfield Heath and Ofsted rated 'Outstanding' Therfield First School. The market town of Royston is under 5 miles away with a wide array of amenities and Royston Mainline Station offering direct links to Cambridge and London Kings Cross.
