LOCATION

Great Wilbraham is a picturesque and much-admired village located just six miles east of Cambridge, making it highly convenient for those seeking the tranquillity of village life with easy access to the city. The village itself offers a strong sense of community, with amenities including a well-regarded primary school, a traditional parish church, village hall, recreation ground and a popular local pub. Everyday shopping facilities and services can be found in the neighbouring villages of Fulbourn and Bottisham, while the historic city of Cambridge provides a wide range of cultural, leisure, shopping and dining opportunities. The village is well connected, with excellent road links via the A14, A11 and M11, as well as rail services into London King's Cross and Liverpool Street from Cambridge and Whittlesford Parkway. This makes the location particularly appealing to commuters. The area is also ideally placed for Addenbrooke's Hospital, the Cambridge Biomedical Campus, Granta Park and a number of leading business and science parks. Families are well served with access to both the village primary school and highly regarded state and independent schools in Cambridge and the surrounding area. Surrounded by attractive countryside, Great Wilbraham offers a network of footpaths and bridleways for walking, cycling and riding, making it an ideal location for those who enjoy outdoor pursuits while still being close to the amenities of the city.
