LOCATION

Situated on Victoria Road within the ever popular West Chesterton district of Cambridge, the property occupies a highly convenient and well connected north city position, ideally placed for both owner occupiers and commuters alike. The area is particularly favoured for its excellent balance of accessibility, everyday amenities and proximity to some of Cambridge's key employment hubs. A wide range of local facilities can be found nearby on both Histon Road and Chesterton Road including supermarkets, independent cafés, restaurants, public houses and convenience stores, whilst the historic city centre, with its combination of shopping, dining and cultural attractions, is approximately 0.9 miles away. The property is also exceptionally well positioned for access to Cambridge Science Park, St John's Innovation Centre and the Cambridge Business Park, together with Cambridge North Station providing direct rail services into London King's Cross. The CB1 Business District and Cambridge Railway Station are also readily accessible. For those needing to travel further afield, the A14 at Junction 32 lies approximately 1.5 miles away, connecting efficiently to the M11, A1 and wider national road networks. There are also a number of nearby green spaces including Jesus Green, Midsummer Common and the River Cam, all offering attractive recreational walks and cycling routes into the city centre and beyond. Distances are approximate.
