The property occupies a rather special and quite delightful non-estate position right in the heart of this highly sought after village. The High Street is actually a no-through road and the village has its own fine church, doctor's surgery, tennis club and Italian restaurant La Pergola which is situated towards the edge of the neighbouring village of Great Eversden. The village is conveniently located about 7 miles south west of the university city of Cambridge and is so well placed for access to major routes including the A10 and M11 motorway.
