An exceptionally well presented and significantly improved bay fronted Victorian semi detached home, occupying a prime position within the highly sought after Victoria Park district of Cambridge. Offering versatile and thoughtfully arranged accommodation, the property has been expertly remodelled to maximise both space and functionality. Further benefits include a private, low maintenance rear garden, off street parking to the front, and excellent access to Mitcham's Corner, Cambridge city centre and the city's principal commuter links. Offered for sale with no onward chain.

LOCATION

Victoria Park is one of Cambridge's most desirable residential districts, renowned for its attractive Victorian streetscapes, strong sense of community and convenient proximity to the city centre. The property is ideally positioned within easy walking distance of Mitcham's Corner, which offers an excellent range of independent shops, cafés, restaurants and everyday amenities. Cambridge city centre, the River Cam and Midsummer Common are all within comfortable walking or cycling distance, while Cambridge North and Cambridge railway stations, together with the A14 and M11, provide excellent commuter connections. The area is also particularly well regarded for its selection of highly rated state and independent schools, making it a consistently popular location for a broad range of buyers.

OUTSIDE

To the front, the property is approached via a dropped kerb from Victoria Park leading onto a block paved driveway providing off street parking for two vehicles. The frontage is attractively landscaped with mature shrubs, lavender and hedging, enclosed by timber fencing to one side, together with a tiled pathway leading to the front entrance door.

The rear garden is an exceptional feature of the property, offering a wonderful degree of privacy. Immediately adjoining the rear of the house is a generous Indian sandstone terrace extending across the rear elevation and continuing around the side return, accessed directly from both the dining room and utility room. A retractable canopy provides excellent shelter, creating an ideal space for outdoor dining and entertaining.

To the rear of the garden is a covered bike and bin storage area before the garden opens onto a generous lawn enclosed by timber fencing. A further patio terrace positioned at the far end of the garden enjoys an attractive olive tree, providing a peaceful seating area. The side return continues to a secure side access gate leading to the front of the property.
