LOCATION

Coton is a highly regarded village situated approximately three miles west of Cambridge city centre, offering an appealing balance of village life and convenient access to the city. The village has a strong community feel, with a primary school, traditional public house, village hall and playing fields, together with Coton Orchard Garden Centre, which incorporates a farm shop, café and post office. The surrounding countryside provides a wealth of opportunities for walking and cycling, whilst the nearby M11 offers convenient road links to London and the wider motorway network. Regular bus services and cycle routes provide access to Cambridge, making Coton an attractive location for those seeking a more rural setting without sacrificing the amenities and facilities of the city.
