LOCATION

Cambridge Road, Oakington is well positioned within this popular and well-served village located just to the north-west of Cambridge. Oakington offers a strong sense of community along with a range of everyday amenities including a village shop, post office, public house, café and a well-regarded primary school, making it particularly appealing to families. The village also benefits from excellent access to open countryside and nearby walking routes. For more comprehensive facilities, the nearby villages of Histon and Impington provide a wider selection of shops, supermarkets, pubs and schooling, including Impington Village College. Cambridge city centre is easily accessible, approximately 5 miles away, offering extensive shopping, dining, cultural and educational facilities. The location is particularly convenient for commuters, situated for the A14 Bar Hill junction providing swift access to the M11, A1 and the wider road network. The Cambridge North railway station is within easy reach, offering regular services to London and beyond. In addition, the nearby guided busway provides a reliable and efficient route into Cambridge, Addenbrooke's Hospital and the Biomedical Campus.
