Guide Price £975,000

The site comprises a large purpose-built fire station of brick construction with five appliance bays and a two storey office. Later additions include training buildings, a drill tower and smoke house. There is a separate detached block including training accommodation, workshops and garaging to the rear of the large drill yard. Cheffins has not undertaken a measured survey of the buildings, but it is understood that the total gross internal area of the fire station and training facilities is approximately 17,976 sqft (1,670 sqm).

PLANNING

The site is located within Huntingdonshire District Council's administrative area and the Huntingdon Neighbourhood Plan (2019) area. For further information please see the Heritage Note produced by Cheffins Heritage located in the data room.

The site has been subject to a modest planning history and there are no extant permissions for the redevelopment of the site.

The site is located within Flood Zones 2 and 3 as shown within the Huntingdonshire Strategic Flood Risk Assessment and on the Environment Agency flood zone maps.

Considering the site's primary former use, as a fire station with training facilities, a comprehensive geo-environmental assessment has been carried out by EPS.

The applicant has undertaken a pre-application enquiry with Huntingdonshire District Council (HDC) for the comprehensive redevelopment of the site, entailing the removal of the entirety of the built development on the site, to residential based on a range of proposals.
