OUTSIDE

The property is set in the heart of this picturesque and sought-after village, comfortably set within delightful, mature grounds of approximately 0.54 of an acre. The gravelled driveway is accessed via a five bar gate and provides extensive off-street parking, in turn leading to the detached double garage. Adjoining the rear of the property is a delightful courtyard area with seating, paved pathways and well-stocked flower and shrub beds. The garden is mainly laid to lawn and enjoys an abundance of colour from the numerous flower and shrub beds, planting and trees. At the end of the garden is a wildlife area with further shrubs, trees and planting, with a bridge over the river leading to a further piece of land owned by the property. In addition to the main house is a garden studio with adjoining workshop and timber tool shed.

DOUBLE GARAGE

A pair of electric roller shutter doors providing vehicular access, power and lighting connected and eaves storage space.

GARDEN STUDIO/ANNEX

A great addition to the main house, offering a multitude of uses dependent upon needs. Currently being used as an artist studio by the current owner, the room enjoys an excellent level of natural light and views over the courtyard and garden. Within the studio is a staircase leading to a mezzanine level which could be used as an office or games area, dependent upon needs and relevant approval.

WORKSHOP

Adjoining the studio is a useful workshop with a pair of windows providing natural light, power and lighting connected. This area could be incorporated into the studio if required.
