Positioned within the peaceful hamlet of Mallows Green, this charming Grade II listed features two substantial double bedrooms, and a further well proportioned double bedroom. Semi detached, this timber framed property dates back to the 17th Century, and enjoys an elevated setting with far reaching countryside views. The property benefits from a generous driveway, cart lodge, and garden extending over 165ft, and is offered with no onward chain.

Retaining a wealth of period features throughout, including two large log burning stoves, the home also presents excellent potential to extend out and into the large vaulted loft space, subject to planning consent.

LOCATION

The well-regarded village of Manuden has a church, popular primary school, inn and garage. The village is situated approximately four miles north west of Bishop's Stortford where there is an extensive range of shops, leisure facilities and excellent schools. The mainline station at Bishop's Stortford provides a regular train service to London's Liverpool Street, and access to the M11 is approximately five miles from the village. The historic market town of Saffron Walden lies approximately nine miles to the north east and has a comprehensive range of shops.
