LOCATION

Shudy Camps is a desirable and unspoilt South Cambridgeshire village with a welcoming and active community. It lies approximately seven miles from the thriving market town of Saffron Walden, with many independent shops, supermarkets, centres for the arts and schools. Cambridge is only 12 miles away, offering its extensive variety of cultural and business amenities. There are mainline stations from both, serving Stansted Airport, Liverpool Street and Kings Cross stations. Haverhill is approximately five miles away with larger supermarkets and out-of-town superstores. Closer to home, Castle Camps, two miles away, has a primary school, public house and local family butcher, while Linton, three miles, offers primary and secondary schools, cafés, art gallery, hairdressers, medical centre, pubs, restaurants and a good collection of shops, including a convenience store.
