LOCATION

Barnham is a well-connected village in the heart of the Norfolk countryside, perfectly positioned between Thetford and Bury St Edmunds. Surrounded by open fields and woodland, including the nearby Thetford Forest, the village offers a peaceful rural setting while remaining convenient for commuters and families alike. The village benefits from its own railway station with direct links to Cambridge and Norwich, making it ideal for those needing easy access to larger towns and cities. The A11 is also within easy reach, providing straightforward road connections towards Newmarket and beyond. Barnham itself has a friendly community feel, with local amenities including a village shop, primary school, and traditional pub. A wider range of shopping, leisure and educational facilities can be found in nearby Thetford, along with riverside walks along the Little Ouse and extensive outdoor activities in Thetford Forest. Combining countryside tranquillity with excellent transport links, Barnham is a highly desirable location for tenants seeking a balance between rural charm and everyday convenience.
