This traditional mid-terrace home on Avondale Street, Colne, presents an excellent opportunity for first-time buyers, downsizers, or investors. Positioned close to local amenities, transport links, and the town centre, the property offers a practical layout with several recent improvements, making it a solid and reliable purchase. Offered with no onward chain, it provides the added benefit of a smooth and straightforward transaction.

The ground floor features a well-proportioned lounge, offering a comfortable reception space with natural light and a versatile layout for furnishings. To the rear, the kitchen provides a functional area for cooking and storage, with access through to a utility room, a valuable addition for laundry appliances, extra workspace, or general household use. Both the kitchen and utility have benefited from damp proofing, providing reassurance and longevity.

To the first floor are two bedrooms, both offering ample space and flexibility, ideal for a main bedroom, guest room, or home office. The property is served by gas central heating, has been rewired, and enjoys newly fitted windows, further enhancing energy efficiency, comfort, and peace of mind for buyers.

Externally, a rear yard provides an easy-to-maintain outdoor space, complete with outbuildings for storage or potential workshop use. It is a private and useful extension of the home, adding practical value for everyday living.

Additional upgrades include loft insulation installed in April/May 2018, supporting improved thermal performance. Overall, this home offers a well-maintained and sensible purchase with key improvements already in place, ready for its next owner to move in or let out with confidence.
